Seneca, Missouri

The Entertainer Indi-Association has released their 2012 roster of nominees and included is Rich McCreedy, Country and Western award winning singer and songwriter. Rich's nomination is for his 2011 release "Ride On".

Rich originally signed with the Magnatone Record Label a recording artist and staff songwriter in the early 1990's. He was represented by the William-Morris Agency and began touring with artists such as Tracy Byrd, Toby Keith, Patty Loveless and Tracy Lawrence. By 1995 he released his first debut CD.

By the end of 1996 Rich had two songs that hit the top 40 charts. His video "Hanging On" was voted as one of the top 100 videos of all time. Rich has also received several CMA, ACM and ICM nominations. He is the recipient of several ASCAP Awards, as well as a Power Source No. 1 Christian Country Single. In 2012, Rich was voted "Top 5 Indy Performers" in the United States.

During his music career, Rich achieved several lifelong goals, including winning "The First Americans in the Arts" and "CMT Rising star award" as well as a MMOF nomination in 2011.

Today McCreedy carries on as a singer, songwriter and records his own music. He is active in working with other artists, producing their records and owns a Music Artist Consulting firm in hometown of Seneca, Missouri. He is also co-owner of McCreedy Recording Studio in Seneca, Missouri and produces under his own label "American Original".

Rich still tours heavily in Texas, Tennessee and California as well as other musical venues and across the country.
